Lee Co. Jail Condemned by Grand Jury

UNSANITARY, JURY STATES IN A REPORT

Eight Indictments Returned by Inquisitorial Body

The grand jury for the April term completed its deliberations yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock and presented its report to Judge Harry Edwards in the circuit court, who occupied the bench in the absence of Judge William J. Emerson of Oregon. Eight indictments were returned, all of the defendants either being in custody or having furnished bond and being under the surveillance of the court.

From the report of the body, it was evident that some serious thought had been given to conditions at the Lee county jail. A part of the report was as follows:

"We find the Lee county jail to be very much over-crowded and unsanitary, and we recommend that the interior of the jail be renovated and put in a sanitary condition. We also recommend that the necessary repairs be made to guarantee the safe keeping of the prisoners confined therein."

Roster of Indictments.

Kinney's Lead Increased to 70,000 With Counts

WAR MOTHERS OF ILLINOIS END MEETING

Fine Convention Held in Dixon Adjourned Thursday Eve

(Contributed)

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon the State War Mothers convention was called to order by Mrs. John Strub, Dixon president, at which time Mrs. Strub presented Frank Palmer, Mayor of Dixon.

Mrs. Palmer in a very pleasing and appropriate speech welcomed the members of the convention to Dixon and spoke in the highest terms of motherhood and mothers who gave their sons for the cause of democracy. State President Fuller replied to Mayor Palmer's welcome in behalf of the convention, expressing the appreciation of those present for the hospitality extended.

Mrs. Lee Eastman, convention sergeant-at-arms, announced several guests bearing greetings from the various military auxiliaries of Dixon. These, with assistance of the flag girls, were presented to President Fuller, each bringing a gift of beautiful flowers from the order which she represented.

The G. A. R. was represented by Mrs. Marie Hefner, Mrs. Elita Fassler and Mrs. Carrie Derr. From the Spanish Veterans Auxiliary came Mrs. A. T. Tourillott, Mrs. Dora E. Heft and Mrs. Harriet Goodman. From the V. F. W. were Mrs. Fannie Bradley and Edna Nelson.

Following these greetings the ladies quartered from the Christian church entertained with a beautiful menu followed by short addresses from 1st National Vice President Mrs. Carrie Root of Gardener, Ill., and Mrs. W. E. Ochiltree and Mrs. John Huntington of Indiana.

Rev. Carlson of the Methodist church with Mrs. Nate Morrill at the piano, gave two very pleasing vocal numbers. At the close of this program the nomination of officers for the ensuing year took place and during the count of ballots telegrams of regrets were read from many who were detained and were unable to attend the convention.

The Mountain Home was explained and it was announced that Illinois has not completed payment on the furnishings of the living room. Subscriptions from the various chapters were taken. Lee County Chapter pledging ten dollars making a total of fifty dollars from the local chapter. Mountain Home is the property of the American War Mothers, incorporated by Congress and accepted in Sept. 1925. The home is near Fitzsimmons hospital, Denver, Colo., and is a place where mothers and wives may live while visiting their invalid sons or husbands at a small cost or free of charge; also where the men from the hospital may rest and have change of atmosphere. The home is being furnished complete by Illinois at a cost of $626.10. All but a very small amount has been raised and the F. W. V. Auxiliary of Dixon generously contributed $5.00 toward liquidating this debt.

At the close of the afternoon meeting the members of the convention were escorted by the Girl Scouts and school children and the F. W. V. Auxiliary to Haymarket Square where a hard maple tree, the gift of President Fuller, was planted in honor of the ex-service men of this community. Four Gold Star Mothers, Mrs. Angeline Reis, Mrs. Lena Wade of Aurora and third name not known, also Mrs. Mary Elliott of Dixon were given the honor of assisting in this dedicatory service. Rev. Carlson of the Methodist church gave a short talk in which the dedication of the tree to peace was the thought, uniting the past with the present to the future thus teaching patriotism. Mrs. Carrie Root, First National Vice President also made a short speech and after a prayer by Rev. Carlson and two verses of America the program for the afternoon was finished.

About 6:30 o'clock a banquet was served to the ladies attending the War Mothers convention, by the ladies of the Lutheran church. The tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion; a lovely coronation (the mother's flower) was at each place as a favor.

To the Lutheran ladies much credit is due for the splendid banquet and service, many guests spoke in highest terms many words of praise for them. Mrs. Viola Strub, toast mistress, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Allan Reed and Mrs. K. K. Kibler rendered two songs.

DIRIGIBLE NOW SAFE IN RUSSIA; WAS LOST IN FOG

Amundsen's Polar Ship Had Perilous Trip

Leningrad, April 16.—(AP)—After having been lost in the fog for the better part of 17 hours yesterday on a voyage from Oslo, Norway, the big Italian built Polar dirigible Norge is housed in the Troski Airplane 39 miles from Leningrad. It will remain about two weeks before resuming its flight to Spitzbergen whence it will start for the Arctic. The ship left Rome last Saturday.

When it failed to appear yesterday, a squadron of Soviet airplanes flew out continually in an endeavor to find it. The futility of efforts to establish radio communication with the ship caused some anxiety for her safety. At one time the airship was far out of her course over the Baltic Sea.

Road Amundsen, leader of the expedition and Lincoln Ellsworth of New York, co-director, are now on their way to Kings Bay, Spitzbergen.

ZENITH RADIO CO. WINS SUIT GOVT. STARTED

Court Holds Govt. Has No Control Over Radio Wave Lengths

Chicago, April 16.—(AP)—The government lost its first air piracy case today when Federal Judge Wilkerson found for the defendant, the Zenith Radio Corporation and its president, E. F. McDonald, Jr., who had been accused of violating the wireless act of 1912.

The court held that sections one and two of the wireless law were ambiguous and could not apply in the present action, and that congress did not empower the Secretary of Commerce with certain discretionary powers which he had assumed.

The case originated when Station WJAZ owned and operated by the corporation and which is licensed to operate on 32.4 meters two hours weekly under a spot arrangement with station KOA at Denver, assumed the use of a 329 meter length which had been set aside for international broadcasting between the United States and Canada.

At the time of the alleged piracy of that wave length, it was unused. McDonald said today that the wave length was seized as an opportunity to provide constructive legislation, the corporation willfully taking an action which they believed contrary to the discretionary powers which the Secretary of Commerce had assumed, and which brought about action by the government, which, in a criminal information filed in federal court, accused the corporation and its president of four specific cases of air piracy.

"We are satisfied also that this action will stimulate congress to enact much needed constructive radio legislation," McDonald said.

CONDITION OF GIRL CAUSES TRIAL DELAY

DeKalb Students Face Serious Charge in Justice Court

DeKalb, Ill., April 16.—Preliminary hearing of three college students charged with criminal assault, upon Dorothy Westervelt, pretty 20-year-old Northern Illinois Teachers college co-ed, set for Saturday of this week, was postponed because of the girl's condition.

State's Atty. Cassius Pount today asked Police Magistrate Elair to continue the hearing a week or ten days because physicians attending the girl declared that the ordeal of accusing the youths in open court would be too great.

While rumors persisted today that her condition is precarious and reports that she was dying were just as persistently denied, interest in the case is intense.

Authorities say Miss Westervelt, according to their information, is much improved today, and that continuance of the case was decided upon merely because her complete recovery was not as rapid as expected.

Legion Show Will Be Best Post Has Ever Given Here

The vaudeville show to be given by Dixon post, No. 12, American Legion on Monday night, April 26, promises to be the best performance ever staged by the local post. All the acts have been in rehearsal for the past two weeks and are progressing very satisfactorily.

The program as arranged called for eight big acts. There is not an acrobatic ventriloquist or "filler" act on the bill. The "Unknown Soldier" will be here. A few Dixon people have seen this act. They recommend it highly and are anxious to see it again. Fred Gardner and his troupe of laugh producers will be here. Fred is keeping the details of his act a secret. He says that it is the best he has ever brought to Dixon, and that assures an exceptionally fine feature.

It has been proven on many previous occasions that Dixon has abundant theatrical talent. The old favorites of Dixon audiences have arranged six acts that are sure to please. Tickets will be placed on sale the fore part of next week and at that time announcement will be made of the dates for their reservation. Every indication points to a sell out and with this in mind the committee urges you to reserve your tickets early.

Dixon Jurist Will Pre side at Conspiracy Trial There

Judge Harry Edwards of this city will go to Woodstock Monday to preside in the McHenry county Circuit Court at the trial of County Judge Charles P. Barnes and former States Attorney V. S. Lumley on charges of conspiracy to commit perjury. Their trial will be the second these men have faced, the Dixon jurist being agreed on to hear the retrial.

Judge Barnes' political power received a severe setback Tuesday when he was defeated for re-nomination by Charles F. Allen of Cary, one of the battery of attorneys who defended him in the first trial last September.

Judge Barnes and V. S. Lumley, a former state's attorney of McHenry county, were convicted in the first trial that lasted six weeks and was fought with extreme bitterness that often broke through the stern decorum of the court room.

TWO HANGED IN COOK CO. FRICKER DIES

Costello, Hobbs and Fricker Expiate Their Crimes

Chicago, April 16.—(AP)—Raymond Costello and Charles Hobbs, negro, stranglers of women, were hanged to kether here at 9:21 o'clock this morning.

Costello was convicted for attacking and strangling 16 year old Madeline White. He pleaded not guilty and reiterated his statement today.

Hobbs freely admitted that he strangled his landlady, Betty Barnett, negroess, to steal seventy five cents.

Costello bitterly arraigned his attorney today for failing to obtain a last minute stay of execution. A plea of insanity since conviction recently failed.

Both men slept several hours last night, but refused to eat either supper last night or breakfast this morning.

Couldn't Eat Meals

"We can't eat," Costello said in low tones and Hobbs echoed the remark.

Spiritual advisers were the condemned men's last visitors. Hobbs' only other death cell visitor was an acquaintance from Mississippi who saw him last night, while Costello's mother, brother and common law wife with their three-month old baby, were bidding him good-bye.

Costello calmly smoked a cigarette while the straps were being adjusted to pinion his limbs and he relinquished it reluctantly only when the white hood was placed over his head.

The negro prayed while the straps, shroud and hood were being adjusted and until the double trap was sprung.

FRICKER PAID PENALTY

Edwardsville, Ill., April 16.—(AP)—Emil Fricker, former wealthy farmer convicted of instigating the murders of two successive husbands of his dairy maid with whom he was infatuated, paid the penalty today with his life.

"I am not guilty," Fricker declared when asked if he had any statement to make before the hanging.

The trap was sprung at 9:11 A. M. and he was pronounced dead at 9:25 A. M.

Fricker, 45 years old, was hanged for directing the murder Sept. 15, 1924 of John Nungesser, second husband of Minnie Schlitt, the dairy maid. The slaying was actually committed by Jacob Landert and Eldo Ernie, farmers, now serving life sentences. They declared in their confessions that Fricker hired them for $250 each to shoot Nungesser to death.

Convicted of Another

Fricker also was convicted of plotting the murder in 1920 of Hobert Kerhl, first husband of the dairy maid, four weeks after their marriage. He was found dead in his field from pistol wounds and the killing passed for suicide until after Nungesser was slain.

THE ELECTION.

If you didn't like the result of Tuesday's election just reflect that a lot of people did. In fact, the majority of them did. The Telegraph is highly pleased at some of the results and some others were not so good, but this is not Williamson county and things take their orderly course here. We don't shoot it out in Lee county. When the majority announce its decision the minority says "Very Good, Eddie. Let's go."

The nomination of Col. Frank L. Smith for State Senator is highly satisfactory. Col. Smith is splendidly qualified to fill this high office and his service to the republican party has been such that he has surely earned this reward. Both candidates were men of high type but we believe that Col. Smith is the better choice to battle George Brennan, Democratic nominee, in the fall elections.

The Telegraph's choice for State Treasurer was Wm. J. Stratton, but Garrett D. Kinney of Peoria, the party nominee, is a man of ability and integrity and it will be easy for the Republican voters to support him in the fall.

Richard Yates and Henry Rathbone, the two nominees for congress from the state at large, were the Telegraph's choice and William R. Johnson of Freeport, nominee for congress from this district, is also highly satisfactory to this paper. Congressman Johnson carried Lee county with a nice margin.

In the legislative race Lee county got all wet. Partly our own fault but chiefly because the other two counties of the district failed to give a neighborly recognition of Lee County's just claim for representation on the delegation to Springfield, Lee county is out in the cold with no place to go, so far as the Republican party is concerned. John Devine will represent the minority part as usual and, as usual, he'll be a good Democratic representative.

Earl R. Buck came through Lee County with colors flying but he failed to gain strength in DeKalb and Whiteside. Joe Vaile made a valiant fight and received a vote that was a credit to him, but his count also shows that the voters in each county were concerned mainly in supporting their home candidate. Mr. Harris of Lee county got nearly as many votes in DeKalb county as in Lee, but his showing was poor and left him at the end of the list.

Henry Allen of Whiteside county led the field by over 7,000 votes. He beat the other Whiteside candidate, Hamilton, in his own county, doubled his vote in DeKalb and nearly did that in Lee county. At the present writing it looks as though the house members would be Allen of Whiteside and Warren of DeKalb. Both men are good selections. Allen has a good record in the house and Warren a new member, is a man of high standing in his own county and should make a valuable representative.

Senator Wright carried both DeKalb and Whiteside counties with sufficient strength to overcome Major Tourtellott's lead in Lee county. Religious differences played a part in the senatorship and representative fights. Also, the fact that lack of hot contests in the Democratic party permitted many voters who might have voted the Jeffersonian ticket to take a part in the Republican primary, probably had some effect on the result.

Hamilton and Warren put on a pretty horse race for second place in the final counting, with Warren having only a slight lead in the face of unofficial returns at present.

The results in the county contests, returning Dorrance Thompson winner for county treasurer and Ward Miller for sheriff, are entirely satisfactory to help to make up a strong ticket for the fall election. William L. Leech for County Judge and Fred G. Dimick for County Treasurer, Llewellyn W. Miller for County Superintendent of School and Martin Gannon for Senatorial Committeeman, all were re-nominated without opposition.

Eugene V. Debs wants his citizenship rights restored, but, of course, he doesn't want to have it done in the manner in which anyone else would have to have it done.

Nothing could have assured more publicity for that Mississippi murder trial than the order of the judge that nothing should be printed.

Seattle's feminine mayor says the expression, pettycoat rule, is out of date. What will it be, the rule of the rouge?

What will congress do in its interims if it ever settles the Muscle Shoals controversy?

Governor Moore of New Jersey suggests that laws ought to expire at the end of a given term. We know of a lot that are out on parole now.

George Brennan's candidacy for United States senator will commit the democratic party definitely to the wets.

Our opinion is that we have enough rain in April without people trying to give picnics.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

THE GAZOOKUMSES AND THE CANDY

"We're the rent collectors," said Nick.

The next place that Mister Tingaling and the Twins went to collect rents, was Mister Owl's house.

"Tap, tap, tap," they went on the door of Mister Owl's apartment in the Maple Tree.

Mister Owl opened the door himself and blinked and blinked and blinked.

"I can't see so very well in the daytime," he said. "Who are you?"

"We're the rent collectors," said Nick.

"Who?" screamed Mister Owl.

"Rent collectors," repeated Nick. "This is Mister Tingaling, your landlord. This is the thirty-second day of the month in Fairyland, and your rent is due, Mister Owl. It's fifty cents in fairy money."

"Fifty cents in foolish money," said Mister Owl. "What do you think I am, anyway? I paid my rent not an hour ago."

It was Mister Tingaling's turn to shout. "What! Paid your rent! How could you pay us when we weren't here?"

"Well, somebody was here," said the owl giving his feathers a shake that made the dust fly. "Or rather three somebodies were here. And I paid them."

"What did they look like?" asked Nick.

"They looked just alike," said Mister Owl. "And they said you had sent them. They looked like three little boys."

"The Gazookumses!" cried Mister Tingaling and the Twins together.

"It was the Gazookumses who got your rent, Mister Owl. Which way did they go?"

"Down toward the candy-store," said Mister Owl. "That way."

Poor Mister Tingaling and the Twins almost flew to the candy store.

"Were three queer little boys here lately?" asked Mister Tingaling in a trembling voice.

"Yes, sir!" said Mister Bags, the candy-store keeper. "They spent fifty cents in fairy money."

"Oh dear!" said poor Mister Tingaling. "Which way did they go?"

"That way," pointed Mister Bags. So off went Mister Tingaling and the Twins again, pocketbook and all, to try and catch the Gazookumses who had stolen Mister Owl's rent money.

But no Gazookumses could they see anywhere.

Finally they stopped under an old dead tree, with a crow's nest in the top.

"I'd give a dozen cookies to know where those rascals went," said Tingaling.

Just then a lolly-pop stick hit him on the nose.

"Where'd that come from?" he demanded.

But nobody answered. The Twins ran this way and that and looked in all the holes and up all the trees.

But they came back and said they couldn't see a soul.

Just then a chocolate-bud jacket all rolled up into a little tin pill hit Mister Tingaling on the ear.

"Where'd that come from?" cried Tingaling picking it up.

But nobody answered.

And just then a little paper frill off a bonbon came floating down and sat itself saucily on top of the fairy-nut hat.

"Who's up the that nest?" he called suddenly, looking up suspiciously at the big nest of sticks and straws in the dead tree.

"Just us crows!" came three voices in a chorus.

"You crows must have a sweet tooth," said Mister Tingaling, winking at the Twins.

Did You Ever Stop to Think—

BY

E. R. Waite, Secretary,
Shawnee, Okla. Board of Commerce

ELMER T. PETERSON, EDITOR OF THE WICHITA, KANSAS BEACON, SAYS:

THAT fifty per cent of the money spent for advertising is thrown away because the writers of the advertisements do not understand how to open the doors of the reader's mind.

THAT advertising, in spite of this fact, is the primary moving force in business today.

THAT salesmanship, service, quality, price, desirability are subdivisions of the general subject of advertising.

THAT the advertiser must create desire on the part of the prospective buyer. He cannot do so by repeating inane expressions like, "The Store of Quality," or "We Strive to Please," or "Service is Our Motto."

The reading public is getting too sophisticated. It doesn't care about slogans or mottoes, but insists upon knowing what, why, how, when and where. It wants to know the price. The public is pretty intelligent and the advertiser must recognize that fact.

THAT too many advertisers try to feature too many things at once and only succeed in producing a blurred gray effect upon the reader's mind.

One appealing fact in black type, thrown into sharp contrast with plenty of white space, hits the mark better than a charge of birdshot scattered all over the place.

THAT first of all, CREATE DESIRE. You can't do that by throwing platitudes. And remember that advertising is the biggest factor in business success. Wait a moment before you object to that sweeping statement—it also includes the business man's own ability, for the knowledge of that ability is a form of advertising in itself.

THE POSSIBILITIES OF ADVERTISING ARE ONLY BEING SCRATCHED. THE NEXT 25 YEARS WILL SEE A GREAT CHANGE AND AMPLIFICATION. LOST MOTION WILL BE CUT OUT AND THE PSYCHOLOGY OF IT WILL BE MORE DEFINITELY ANALYZED. SO DON'T ADVERTISE BY TURNING YOUR ADVERTISEMENT UPSIDE DOWN OR GETTING OFF JOKES OR ATTRACTING ATTENTION BY SOME OTHER FREAKISH METHOD. ALWAYS BEAR IN MIND THE FACT THAT YOU MUST CREATE DESIRE FOR YOUR PRODUCT AND IF YOU WILL FIND THAT ADVERTISING INVESTMENT IS THE BEST OF ALL YOUR INVESTMENTS.

CONFERENCE WILL DISCUSS YOUTHS' MANY PROBLEMS

World Y. M. C. A. Meeting in Finland During the Summer

In discussing the approach to the problems of the youth of today, the General Secretary of the local Association stated this morning that while everywhere discussions continue to rage concerning the vagaries and vices of youth, men and boys of the Young Men's Christian Association of fifty-two countries are approaching the problem from a new angle. Instead of tagging the young people for their waywardness, they are devoting innumerable hours to a careful, first-hand study of what youth is thinking. During the first week of next August their efforts will be brought to a culmination in a conference at Helsinki, the capital of Finland; a conference which, being the first world assembly of the Y. M. C. A. since 1913, may mark, it is believed, "the inauguration of a new working alliance between scientific investigation and the assurances of the Christian Faith."

Such is the hope of the world's Committee at Geneva, Switzerland, where the principal arrangements are being made. Such also is the outlook of the American delegation. "We don't want opinions," says I. B. Rhodes, of New York, general chairman of the American group. "Out of Helsinki, we hope, rather, to gain facts that will help both the Y. M. C. A., the church, and the school to approach the youth problem with a clearer understanding of what it means."

The delegation from the United States, comprising 260 men and boys, ranks second in size. Germany leads, with 400; England, Ireland and Wales combined, followed in third place with 110, while Holland will contribute 100. While at Helsinki, all will be the guests of the Finnish people, whose government has contributed 20,000 Finnish marks for entertainment. In addition, the sum of 100,000 marks has been appropriated by parliament. 50,000 has been raised by Helsinki churches, and a public campaign is reported to be under way for additional funds with which to care for the city's guests from August 1 to 6.

TREATMENT GIVEN SEED CORN ISN'T FULLY DESIRABLE

Can Cut Diseases of Corn Less Than One Tenth at Best

Urbana, Ill.—(AP)—Seed corn treatments as they now exist can bring about less than one-tenth of a complete control of all corn diseases, according to a statement by Benjamin Koehler, crop pathologist of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. The statement is in response to scores of inquiries coming in from farmers wanting to know the advisability of treating their seed corn for the control of diseases. In some respects the experimental results in the treating of seed corn have been encouraging, but seed treatment is by no means a "cure all" and can never take the place of good seed corn selection and good breeding, Koehler said.

"It is only in the case of root rots and the seedling blights that seed treatment is effective at the present time. There are five diseases of this kind and of these five, two can be greatly lessened by seed treatment, provided the diseases were not severe enough to kill the kernel. These two are the Diplodia kernel infection and the Gibberella kernel infection. The experiments to date, the other three diseases carried on the seed are not lessened by treatment. Of the five seed borne diseases, the three that are not affected by seed treatment are as a group probably doing more damage over the state than the two that are controlled by the seed treatment.

"It is true that in a year such as the present one when the Diplodia disease is usually abundant in most parts of the state that seed treatment with the commercial compounds will very likely be worth the trouble and expense involved. With reasonable care, no harm at least is likely to result from the use of these chemicals on corn and there is very little danger in giving them a trial.

As for the other corn diseases, ear rots, stalk rots and smut, seed treatment is of little avail. Even in the case of root rot, seed treatment may not be effective, for this disease also is carried in the soil, in which case seed treatment cannot control it.

"Ear rots cannot be controlled by seed treatment because they are not caused by infection on the seed but by spores which are produced on the previous year's corn crop and which overwinter out of doors. These spores may be carried for miles by the wind. The same spores also cause stalk rots which often result in broken stalks. Corn smut also is not carried on the seed but overwinters out of doors in the same way.

"Although the diseases of this type cannot be controlled by seed treatment, they can be checked in a large measure by growing more disease resistant corn. This kind of corn can be obtained by careful, intelligent selection over a period of years. This careful selection should start in the field, be continued at the drying rack and end on the granulator."

At the present time four chemical compounds for seed treatment of corn are on the market. One of these has been tested for three years by the experiment station of the agricultural college and another for two years. The other two compounds, along

MAJOR PROJECT OGLE CO. FARM BUREAU READY

Active Year Planned by Advisor and Executive Body

Oregon—The major projects of the Ogle County Farm Bureau program for 1926 as approved at a recent meeting of the board of directors include Membership Campaign, Soil Improvement, Seed Corn Selection and Germination, Live Stock Sanitation and Community Organization. In addition there was approved a list of 25 other minor and service projects through which the members may receive benefits.

The membership project will be made the chief issue this year in order that the number of members may be increased. Since the middle of December 143 farmers have joined who were not members of the Farm Bureau during the last three year term.

Considerable help is being given to farmers this spring in securing seed corn and it is pretty well assured that there will be no serious consequences from the shortage of seed corn if proper testing of the seed is done.

The Ogle County Farm Bureau held several demonstration meetings this spring to show methods of making corn germination tests and many farmers took advantage of them and are giving their seed a thorough ear test this spring. Seed corn has also been purchased at a discount price for Farm Bureau members.

Orchard pruning was the subject of five demonstrations in March.

The March report also shows 19 meetings held during the month including two community meetings at Forreston and Lindenwood with an attendance of more than 100 in each case.

Some new cooperators have joined in the hog sanitation and corn improvement projects and will work for results to show this fall in field demonstration meetings.

HELP THEM TODAY

F. M. Platte Secy. Switchmen's Union, Peoria, Ill., talks: "Two bottles of Foley Pills removed all symptoms of my kidney trouble, stopping backache and pains, dizziness and floating specks, correcting irregular kidney action, clearing secretions. Foley Pills have my heartiest recommendations." Months of cold and damp weather put a heavy strain on the kidneys. Help them today with Foley Pills. No more backaches, dull headaches, dizziness, tired-out feeling. A quick improvement will amply repay you. Ask your druggist for Foley Pills. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST WEEKS OF KOLB AND DILL CHICAGO ENGAGEMENT

Kolb and Dill, their clever singing and dancing company, will begin their last weeks at the Studebaker Theater, Chicago, in their merry, wholesome fun-making musical comedy, "Pair O' Fools." The engagement will be for three weeks more.

"Pair O' Fools" is a naive little song-and-dance farce with many whistleable tunes, many of which have a lingering appeal. The story concerns the intrigue spun by Andy Simmons, who wishes his daughter to marry Rudy Valentine, his partner in the lumber business. Said daughter, however, wants a man with a lurid past and Rudy acquires a hectic hue by means of a fictitious affair with a famous screen beauty. Of course the lady arrives on the scene, and then the fun becomes fast and furious. The best of all in this happy-go-lucky comedy is the appearance of the California "Sweet Sixteen Dancing Girls." These magnetic youngsters can sure dance and sing, and, as all the critics agree, they are both youthful and pretty. Others in the cast are May Cloy, Jackson Murray, Julia Blanc, Doris Duncan, Donald Carroll, Fay Tempest, Stanley Mack, Harold Nelson, and others.

Application for seats from Chicago and out-of-town patrons, accompanied by check or money order, will receive immediate and careful attention.

PRICES—Evenings, Sunday to Friday, Orchestra $2.50; Balconies, $2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00, 75c. Wednesday Matinee, Orchestra, $1.50; Balconies, $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c. Saturday evening, Orchestra, $3.00; Balconies, $3.00, $2.50, $2.00, $1.50, $1.00. Plus ten percent war tax outside of 50c and 75c tickets.

Rich

in flavor... that's why Quaker Oats entices youngsters

THE way to make children like oatmeal is to give them the kind they like.

Thus millions of mothers insist on the Quaker brand. Children who ordinarily don't like oats, take readily to this rich and tasty kind.

Quaker flavor is due to exclusive milling processes which took some 50 years to perfect. Processes, too, which retain much of the "bulk" of oats, which makes laxatives less often needed.

Thus protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and "bulk" are combined in making Quaker Oats an excellent food balance.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. Thus makes the richest breakfast the quickest.

The price is the same as for ordinary oats. When a substitute is accepted, you alone are the loser.

BROWNING'S GIRL BRIDE SPENT DAY SPENDING MONEY

Costly Rings Among the Gifts Purchased by Millionaire

New York, April 16—(AP)—Edward W. Browning, the 51 year old "Cinderella" man, who says his greatest ambition is to preside over a happy home and family, has taken occasion during his honeymoon with his 15 year old bride, to visit a toy shop and purchase several sets of games intended for fireside amusement. The bride accompanied him there after she had spent most of yesterday buying expensive gowns and other feminine apparel, including a milk coat, in Fifth Avenue shops. Browning, on the fifth day of their honeymoon brought her an engagement ring, a wedding ring and also a birthday ring at a cost of about $5,000. The birthday ring was a lovers' knot inlaid with two large diamonds. The bride will be 16 on June 16.

Got Threatening Note

While the Children's Society yesterday dropped its action, started before the marriage, seeking to remove the girl from the guardianship of her mother, Mrs. Catherine Heenan, other worries appeared on the couple's matrimonial horizon. After Browning had received several threatening telephone calls, he hired six private detectives to keep guard in the hotel at Bronxville, N. Y., where he has been staying during the last two days with his bride. When he was considering adopting Mary Louise Spas last year, he received a somewhat similar threat in a letter. He succeeded in having the writer of the letter arrested.

Wife Meets "Sunshine"

Driving with Browning to a boarding school in Riverside Drive yesterday, Mrs. Browning met for the first time Dorothy "Sunshine," 11 year old girl adopted by Browning several years ago. Browning had said that one of his motives in marrying was to have a companion for Dorothy and to "bridge the gap of years" between her and himself.

After her shopping tour yesterday, Mrs. Browning said: "Why, I have scarcely begun my shopping yet. I have ever so many things to get." She makes her shopping rounds in Browning's car accompanied by her mother, and a footman in addition to the chauffeur. It was explained the foot man was needed to save annoyance from the crowds.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS COLD, ACCIDENTS, ILLNESS, HAMPER MAJOR LEAGUES

Six Contests Have Been Postponed Because of Bad Weather

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Cold weather and accidents and illness are interfering with the Major League baseball season.

Already low temperatures have brought postponement of six contests. At Philadelphia yesterday Harry Riccarda, Braves right baseman, suffered a fractured right leg sliding in the plate and will be out of the game for some time.

At St. Louis, the veteran Umpire Hank O'Day was stricken with appendicitis just before the start of the game and sent to a hospital.

With the Brooklyn-New York, Chicago-Cincinnati, Yank-Red Sox and the Cleveland-Detroit games postponed on account of cold, the Philadelphia clubs claimed attention. The Athletics turned in the American League champion Senators after two defeats and slugged out a 3-2 victory while the Phillies continued in their winning frame of mind and beat the Braves, 8-4.

Traded Boxmen Fail.

It was a day of experiment for the managers eager for vindication of winter trades. The Braves started George Mogridge, formerly of the Senators and he journeyed to the showers before the first inning had been completed. Washington tried Joe Bush, obtained from the Browns and he also failed. So did Tom Zachary, former Senator left-handed, when he attempted to officiate for the Browns.

The White Sox, displaying an unexpected hitting power, trampled the Siskies, 11-4.

Joe Pate, a 32 year old rookie from the Texas League, allowed only two hits in 6-2-3 innings after relieving Baumgartner against Washington.

Cy Williams was the hero of the Phillies' third straight conquest. Rushed into the contest in the ninth inning with three on the bases, he belted a homer. It was his second of the season.

Vic Keen, formerly of the Cubs, went to the mound for the Cardinals and returned with Hornsby's second victory of the year over the Champion Pirates, 2-0. Hornsby regained the batting eye he had lost on Wednesday and hammered out a double and two singles.

SAYS GAMBLERS SOUGHT PLACE IN GRID GAMES

Dartmouth Prexy Tells of Investigations He Conducted

New Britain, Conn., April 16—(AP)—The revelation that gamblers who tricked the Chicago White Sox in a world's series scandal sought to conduct big betting operations on college football, comes from Ernest M. Hopkins, president of Dartmouth. In an address last night, he said that at one time there was posted at Hanover a statement that another college which Dartmouth was to play had $15,000 to back its team. The statement concluded with "has Dartmouth any money?"

"We investigated and found as we supposed," President Hopkins said, "that the money did not come from the college nor from the undergraduates. It came from a group of professional gamblers. Two of the men a few weeks previously, had tampered with the Chicago White Sox in the world series."

President Hopkins said he had no objection to individual bets if an undergraduate feels that his team needs support of a financial nature.

Sublette Ass'n. Plans Fast Team for Season

The Sublette Baseball Association, composed of business men of that city, are planning a very prosperous season in this line of sport. A bazaar held last week for the benefit of the field last week for the benefit of the team this season, proved a very successful venture and a neat sum was realized to be applied toward the purchase of uniforms and equipment. Otto Koehler and Otto Stephanich have been elected to manage the duties of the Sublette team this year, and already have signed up several of the best players in the county. The majority of the team's games will probably be played in Sublette, although games will be scheduled with out of town teams in this locality. Work is to be started on the baseball field soon as it is hoped to start the schedule as early as possible, and every indication points to a prosperous season.

Lewis' Headlock Won Mon from Munn

Boston, April 16—(AP)—"Ed (Strangler) Lewis of Chicago has demonstrated the efficacy of his famous head lock once more. It brought him victory here last night over Wayne (Big) Munn of Kansas City whom he defeated in two straight falls.

In addition to beating the former Nebraska University football star, Lewis retained the much contested diamond belt. The former champion promised to forfeit if Wayne won.

The first fall, which Lewis obtained after 59 minutes of wrestling, came when the referee ordered Munn to break a hold. The Nebraskan stepped back to remonstrate and instantly Lewis had clamped on his head lock and tossed his man heavily. The crowd boomed the decision.

The second fall however was a clean cut win. It took only 14 minutes and 40 seconds.

Sidelights

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Clyde Pittinger, former Cub infielder who was traded to the Louisville American Association as part payment for Shortstop Shannon, smashed out four hits in the slaughter of the Milwaukee Brewers yesterday.

Jimmy McAuley, former Pacific Coast League star who was with the Cubs last season, starred for Minneapolis against Columbus yesterday. Playing at short McAuley accepted 14 chances without a bobbie. He failed to get a hit but scored twice.

The veteran Casey Stengel, former Giant, who is managing the Toledo American Association injected himself into the game against St. Paul as a pinch hitter and showed how to crack the ball by smashing a double.

THESE WOMEN 11

COCKTAILS said Audrey, briefly. Parrish looked at her with interest. "How can you tell?" 11 was a rich dark red, and her cheeks were blooming. She had the round face of a child, and a child's round and inquiring eyes. Her arms and shoulders were bare, and on her left wrist was a long platinum chain wound around and around to serve as a bracelet. 11

As Audrey watched, the girl upset a tall glass that the waiter placed before her. She giggled hysterically and drew back, as the waiter sopped up the liquid with napkins snatched from an adjoining table. When all pulled her chair close again, she turned to Morton as if apologizing. Learning nearer and nearer to him, her arm stole over the back of his chair, and finally over his shoulder. 11

He merely looked amused. "Let's go," again proposed Parrish, who had not lost any of the details of this scene. 11

BEGIN HERE TODAY

At the opening of the story to day, AUDREY MORTON has just seen her guardian, HARRY MORTON, with whom she is in love, enter the Bon cabaret at midnight with a gay party of women. She has asked JOHN PARRISH, Morton's secretary, to take her there, having overheard Morton make an appointment for the place. 11

Morton has tried to interest her in Parrish. He also has tried to disgust her with him by a violent flirtation with NONA, a New York stage girl, who is in love with him. 11

Morton has been a mystery to the gossip of Rochester for 15 years, since he first went there with Audrey, then a little child. Rich, handsome, unmarried, he maintains a home in Rochester and a costly apartment in New York, dividing his time between them. His business and his past are unknown to his friends and neighbors. 11

Audrey offers Parrish the money for their meal. 11

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY 11

(The names and situations in this story are fictitious.) 11

CHAPTER XVII 11

AUDREY lifted the little silk and velvet bag that she had brought on her arm, drew from it a fifty dollar bill, and passed it to her escort. He did this without once taking her eyes from Morton, on the other side of the room. 11

Parrish caught the direction of her glance, and with a quick look, settled back in his seat. 11

"Hadden't we better go?" he asked, leaning over toward her. 11

She made a negative motion of her head. "I want to stay," she told him. 11

The manager of the restaurant himself was escorting Morton and his party to a table, that stood directly alongside the dancing floor. Re moving the sign "RESERVED" from a bouquet of flowers that stood in the middle of the cloth, the manager pulled out Morton's chair for him. Morton waited until the girls in his party were seated, and then gave a rapid order to the restaurant man. 11

Audrey, watching, saw one of the liquor agents in the corner of the room disappear, and promptly return with a small package. In a few moments a waiter brought to Morton's table a tray of after-dinner coffee cups. Morton, bowing to the girls, lifted his own cup, as if pledging his companions. 11

"Let them drink whisky," murmured Parrish. 11

"Cocktails," said Audrey, briefly. 11

Parrish looked at her with interest. "How can you tell?" 11

"Daddy has never taken me to any of these places, but he has told me about them," she said. "They always serve cocktails in those little coffee cups. That's so nobody can see what is in them." 11

The girls who were with Morton were strangers to Audrey, but the other male member of the party was the man who had spoken to Morton in front of the apt store, the day before. 11

Paying almost no heed to Parrish, she continued to watch Morton's table. The waiter brought her dish after dish, each of which she pushed away. Parrish was making a good meal out of the small portions that were set before him. 11

"Don't you want to eat anything?" he asked her. 11

"I think not," she said. "I may take some coffee." 11

In Morton's group the conversation was becoming lively. Two more trays, with the little cups, had been brought. One girl, who was sitting at Morton's right, was laughing at Morton continuously. 11

The girl was ruddy—whether artifi cially or naturally, Audrey could not tell at that distance. Her hair 11

IF YOU HAVE AN ACHE OR PAIN LET THIS EXPERT HELP YOU

For Twenty Years He's Been Relieving Lame Backs; Sore, Stiff Muscles; Swollen Joints; Sprained, Achy Feet; Rheumatic Pains and Kindred Ills of Big League Athletics.

He Looks After Walter Johnson, Coveleskie, and Others of the Washington Baseball Team

Greatest Expert Living on Keeping Athletes in Perfect Condition.

TRY HIS METHOD ON YOUR ACES AND PAINS

We want to introduce the reader to Mike Martin, who probably knows more about keeping a person in fighting condition than anyone else living. For twenty years, at various universities and with the New York “Yankees,” Cincinnati “Reds” now as trainer of the Washington Ball club. Mike Martin has won fame as a lightning-quick fixer of sprains, pains, aches, etc., etc.

Mike Martin is a genius. He can take men claimed to be too old, stiff or rheumatic to play baseball at all, and make them as frisky, vigorous, supple and quick as a boy. Mike Martin knows his business—ask Walter Johnson, Coveleskie, Ty Cobb, George Sisler, or any of the big stars—they know.

He Can Help You.

Mike Martin has had a little folder printed telling how he quickly banishes stiff, swollen joints, aches, lame backs or feet, various rheumatic pains, etc. He has arranged with leading druggists here in town to sell you generous size bottles of the liniment they use at the ball park. He has made it a long time for his own use. Athletes on other teams kept Mike busy making his “Mike Martin’s Liniment.” Trainers, coaches, colleges, big league teams all over the country buy it by the gallon from Mike. Now, Mike Martin, swamped with demands for this liniment and directions on how to use it, has employed a big sales company to distribute it and they are supplying all the druggists—Mike still superintends the making of it during odd times between acting as trainer of the 1924 and 1925 American League champion, Washington Ball club.

Ask the Druggist.

If your druggist hasn’t secured a few bottles of Mike Martin’s Liniment

ask him to get it. There is no other liniment like it. It works like greased lightning even in cases of chronic lameness, swellings, stiffness or pains, yet it is so mild it can be used on a baby’s skin. Mike Martin’s Liniment is unquestionably the most effective, quick, sure, up-to-date remedy made. Big league players couldn’t afford to fool with weaker, slower remedies—no one else should.

If your druggist has some remedy of his own he prefers to sell, just write The White Cross Drug Store, Dixon, or Mike Martin, Trainer, Ball Park, Washington, D. C., and enclose 50c for folder and two-ounce bottle of liniment, or $1.00 bill for large eight-ounce bottle, prepaid to your door—Adv.
